gamescom award 2021: Apply now!

Application period for the gamescom award 2021 open until Tuesday, August 3, 4:00 p.m. +++ announcement of winners on Wednesday, August 25

The application period for the gamescom award 2021 has started: All games from gamescom partners to be presented as part of gamescom now may be submitted until the entry deadline on August 3, 4:00 p.m. The gamescom award is presented in a total of 24 categories. In order to participate, entrants must submit an approximately 10-minute gameplay video (optionally commented) to the award office for evaluation by the gamescom award jury. The winners will be announced on Wednesday, August 25, 2021. Some of the prizes will be awarded during gamescom: Opening Night Live and others in the gamescom studio. All of the award winners can also be found on gamescom now - gamescom's content hub.

Due to the coronavirus pandemic, gamescom 2021 will be held exclusively in digital format. The gamescom award comes with several innovations: The gamescom award jury will view and evaluate the submitted gameplay footage prior to the digital event. In the Consumer Awards group, gamescom fans will vote for their favorites in the "Best Streamer" and gamescom "Most Wanted" categories.

To ensure a successful submission, the entry form for the gamescom award must be filled out and sent to the award office by the deadline. More precise specifications for the design of the video to be submitted can be found in the rules on the newly created gamescom award landing page.
